Medicaid Fee Schedule Changes

Effective May 1, 2011, as part of the 2011-2012 New York State Budget, the Department of Health (DOH) is preparing to adjust the Medicaid dental fee schedule in order to implement the recommendations of the Governor’s Medicaid Redesign Team to effect a $60 million in overall annual savings. The DOH anticipates implementing a new fee schedule on May 1, 2011. If changes are not implemented on May 1st, the DOH intends to make the changes retroactive to all claims submitted on or after May 1st. Effective April 1, 2011, Medicaid will continue to allow dentists treating patients in Article 28 facilities in operating rooms and emergency departments to submit claims for treatment services at a reduced payment level. Services may be billed at 65% of the current Medicaid dental fee-for-service fee schedule. The Department does not plan to reduce the total level of this reimbursement when the fee-for-service schedule is restructured on May 1st – although the facility based payment may undergo some realignment at that time. Dentists providing service in the emergency room or in ambulatory surgery can bill Medicaid $87.00 for ADA code D9420 [hospital visit] for each patient served. This code can also be billed for inpatient surgery. Other specific treatment codes will be reimbursed at 65% of the current Medicaid dental fee schedule.

Dentists cannot bill the fee schedule for hospital or free-standing clinic services except for orthodontic services.
