Another Outstanding Event for the Greater New York Dental Meeting

Thank You to the Members of the SDDS

Dear Colleagues,

Have you ever thought back and wondered what has brought you along your career path? Every once in a while, a moment happens in my life where I reflect back on this question. My career path into dentistry started as being a terrible orthodontic patient, one who would constantly fidget with my appliances causing breakage of wires and de-bonding of brackets; thus spending endless hours in the dental office. I attended William Culleson Bryant High School in Queens, NY, and a particular assignment came about, where I was asked to write about a future career of interest. What better topic to write about than dentistry, since at this point, I had at least three to four years of “dental experience.” My educational path continued upon completing three years of college as a biochemistry major at New York University. Thereafter, I was accepted as an early admission into New York University College of Dentistry. I graduated dental school in 1989 and subsequently completed a one year general practice residency at Long Island College Hospital. In 1993, I received my post-graduate certificate in Periodontics from NYU and continued further studies ultimately becoming a Diplomat of the American Board of Periodontology. My career path into dentistry comes with considerable good fortune. Most notably, I have been blessed and have continued to be fortunate enough to have made acquaintances with many creative and passionate people that have mentored me. That same passion has coursed through my veins and has motivated me to give back to dentistry. It is with pleasure and great pride that I have affiliated myself with organized dentistry rising up the ladder to the presidency of the Second District Dental Society, President-Elect of the Northeastern Society of Periodontics, Second District Representative to the NYSDA Council of Ethics and Clinical Attending in Periodontics at Lutheran...

location plans a large community service activity right at front stage viewing a buzz for attendees who are entering the Jacob K. Javits Center.

This year with the help of volunteers from the Hygiene Departments of New York University, Hostos Community College and New York City College of Technology, and Second District Dental Society members, about 1,300 public school students received information on nutrition and oral hygiene instruction in a fun and child-friendly atmosphere.

In 2010, our leading sponsor, the Colgate Palmolive Company, screened nearly 500 students. In 2011, Colgate exceeded their screening record at the Greater New York Smiles by screening 670 students in total. The GNYDM continues to be the largest and best dental congress in the United States. Its success has always been the result of the tremendous amount of work produced by a small group of individuals with loads of energy. The Organization Committee of the GNYDM works tirelessly throughout the year to ensure the meeting’s success. The committee, led by the SDDS representatives, Drs. Ian Lerner, John Halikias, Lauro Medrano-Saldalada, Deborah Pasquale and Richard Oshrain, took the Meeting to new heights. Of course, additional thanks for allowing the Meeting to run smoothly and effortlessly must go to the countless SDDS member volunteers who were a part of the Meeting’s many sub-committees.

The GNYDM’s success always translates to financial success for the SDDS. It is through the GNYDM that the SDDS has been able to continue its long tradition of low cost, high quality continuing education and member services. The SDDS member dues have remained stable for many years as a result of this partnership.

Mark your calendar for next year’s Meeting, November 23 – November 28. Plans for the 2012 GNYDM are already well underway and it promises to be another unparalleled success. Please submit your availability and willingness to volunteer by e-mail info@gnymd.com or fax 212-398-6934. Encourage your friends to join us and all of you can have dinner at the Marriott Marquis Hotel during our Pre-Convention Meeting next November.

Second District is proud to recognize 18 of our own who have reached the milestone status as Life Member in the American Dental Association. These individuals noted below, exemplify dedication to the ideals of the dental profession and commitment to organized dentistry. Collectively, this group has accumulated over 500 membership years with the Second District. They have donated countless hours of their time to this Society and its membership, voluntarily serving on numerous local committees and NYSDA or ADA councils. They are mentors to some. They have shared their experiences with many. They are teachers. They are colleagues. Most importantly, though, they are caregivers to the hundreds of patients who have depended upon their professional training and skills as dentists.

Congratulations to all of you, with grateful appreciation from all of us!

Medical Center and Long Island College Hospital. Organized dentistry is consistently facing great and greater challenges and it is very easy to sit back and say, “Why should I be a member of organized dentistry?” “What benefits does organizing dentistry offer to me?” Without being involved and without being aware of the current issues facing dentistry it is very easy to convince yourself that organized dentistry has no bearing on your professional career. However, I can tell you that I asked myself these very same questions and it was not until I became involved that I realized the importance and benefits of organized dentistry. Through the last few years, NYSDA’s outstanding advocacy efforts have championed these causes: - Passed legislation banning corporate practice precepts - Forced insurers to accept the standard claim forms - Shortened the statute of limitations for litigation from three to two and a half years - Reduced the amount contingent fees in dental malpractice actions - Kept cuts to dental services out of the Governor’s proposed 2010 budget cuts - Most recently, dentistry is being challenged with issues reflecting on practice trends and issues affecting long and short-term challenges - Medicaid reform - Increased student loan debt that drives new dental graduates towards corporate dental practice entities These goals and challenges cannot be addressed without us, as dentists. Just as we all have made an investment in our education, we need to continue to advance our future and the future of dentistry. This can only be done effectively when we are all united in our mission. In closing, on behalf of the SDDS Board, we would like to wish you a healthy and prosperous New Year. It is the mission of your society to help you succeed, so please do not hesitate to contact us if there are any issues that you would like to address. Sincerely, Constantine G. Pavlakos, D.D.S. President, SDDS

President Obama Signs Key Funding Legislation

Law Funds Critical Education and Prevention Programs, Prohibits Spending on Alternative Dental Provider Demonstration Projects

source: www.ADA.org

The $1 trillion spending bill that President Obama signed into law on December 16th, 2010 included several ADA-supported provisions funding critical dental initiatives that focus on education and prevention. During these tough fiscal times, when many federal programs are being cut, the ADA has worked hard to convince Congress of the importance of oral health initiatives like those within the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, the Indian Health Service and the National Institutes of Health, as well as Title VII residency programs that improve access to dental care by placing dentists in areas where access to dental care by placing dentists in areas where

9:00 AM - 12 NOON
MCEU - 1 HOURS

Title:
“Practice Building with Respect to Implant Prosthodontics”

Clinician:
Michael B. Bruno, D.M.D.
Assistant Clinical Instructor of Prosthodontics,
Columbia University College of Dental Medicine and Lenox Hill Hospital

Synopsis:
As restorative dentists have provided patients with improved oral function utilizing dental implants, we have also made significant enhancements and refinements with respect to the dental environment to achieve predictable results through diagnosis, periodontal biotypes, platform switching.

This course will outline the dynamic of practice building and practice management as implant prosthodontics contribute substantially to our entire field. Upon successful completion of this course, attendees will have an in-depth understanding of case design and abutment selection in implant prosthodontics combined with an overview of the evolution of abutment systems and esthetic advances.

CONTINUING EDUCATION COURSE #2012-05

Fort Hamilton Community Club, Brooklyn, NY

Friday, March 2, 2012

9:00 AM - 12 NOON
MCEU - 1 HOURS

Title:
“Diagnostics for Predictable Results”

Clinician:
Peter Kouvaris, C.D.T., Oral Design
Owner, Peter Kouvaris Dental Studio

Synopsis:
This lecture will give participants a close look at the basic components of smile design. First, Golden Proportion, Golden Percentage and even facial asymmetry, along with the concept of steady state stability in the establishment of osseointegration, will be discussed. Next, attendees will be introduced to a comprehensive "Smile Evaluation" checklist which is a valuable adjunct in helping to develop a solid treatment plan for a prospective patient. Using this checklist will allow the practitioner to establish what is currently wrong with the patient’s smile and aid in the formulation of a treatment plan that will culminate in long lasting aesthetic success. Finally, case presentation will be used to demonstrate the use of this checklist and each case will be discussed with an emphasis on the practical aspects of smile design and aesthetics.

Upon successful completion of this course, attendees will learn how to relate facial esthetics with the dental environment to achieve predictable results through diagnosis, periodontal biotypes, platform switching and aesthetics.

Are you planning to attend a course at the Fort Hamilton Community Club?

The Fort Hamilton Community Club is located on a military base. You may be randomly stopped by the Military Police on duty entering the base or while on the grounds. Please have your photo ID/Driver's license, current registration and insurance card available for inspection.

SDS Photo of the Month

Outgoing SDDS President Stuart Segelnick sports the latest in headgear. To honor his original song, “SDS is the best”, Board member Gabe Ariola presented Stuart with this cap to commemorate Stuart’s last Board meeting as presiding chair.
