The Greater New York Dental Meeting begins its Annual World Implant Congress to facilitate the education of dental professionals in all aspects of implantology. In addition, it will expand its exhibit floor to include the sale of implants, associated materials and technology solutions. This new addition will supplement the expansion of the exhibit floor that is already expanded due to the dental laboratory extravaganza.

The GNYDM will use its expertise in educational programming to include sponsored implant programs including seminars, hands-on-workshops, “Live” patient demonstrations and technology pavilions to increase the market for implant solutions through multi-media event programming.

ADA House of Delegates: No Dues Increase

At the 155th meeting of the American Dental Association’s (ADA) House of Delegates, the delegates deliberated over many varying issues affecting our profession on the national level. Topics such as student debt relief, new CDT codes, and declining trends in Association membership were discussed.

The ADA’s finances are in good stead. The House of Delegates approved a surplus budget for 2015 with no dues increase. The financial reserves of the Association remain at a very healthy level due to a recent increase in non-dues revenue.

The House of Delegates elected Dr. Carol Summerhays of San Diego as the Association’s next President-Elect. Dr. Summerhays is immediate past trustee of the ADA’s 13th District (California). A 1978 graduate of the University of Southern California, Dr. Summerhays is Past President of the California Dental Association.

A logical approach to the treatment planning of attachment dentistry will be presented, thus ensuring long-term success and patient satisfaction. Clinical cases will be reviewed and participants will gain knowledge, excitement and confidence, enabling them to utilize attachments in their daily practice immediately. Participants are encouraged to bring questions which will be discussed throughout the presentation, as well as any of their past experiences with dental attachments. Upon successful completion of this course, attendees will learn how to control loading and rotational forces, the "dos and don’ts" of attachment case treatment planning, how to first do occlusal set-ups and create surgical stents and become familiar with relining techniques. Attendees will also:

- Understand the rationale for using attachments in fixed and removable prosthetics on abutments, roots and implants
- Become familiar with precision and semi-precision attachments, studs, rod and tubes, magnets, bars and other types of fixed, segmented, removable and overdenture attachments
- Be able to immediately incorporate attachment dentistry into patient treatment planning
- Learn what precision and semi-precision attachments are and how they are used in prosthetic dentistry
- Become familiar with rigid and resilient intracoronal and extracoronal attachments
- Learn a logical approach to begin incorporating attachment dentistry into their treatment planning
- Learn to take a closer look at the redistribution of traumatic forces to bone, soft tissue, teeth and implants and understand how they are affected
- Learn to convert a fixed attachment retained partial denture to a removable attachment retained partial denture.

6:00 PM *CEU - 1 HOUR
Title: “Planning an Exit Strategy for a Retiring Dentist”
Clinician: Ronald M. Nemeroфф, D.D.S.
President, RIVN Consultants
Synopsis:
This lecture will describe the many ways in which a retiring dentist can transition out of his/her practice. It will explain the time frame of the sale, the necessary adjustments that need to be made prior to a sale and the factors that influence the price of a practice. The lecture will also review how to set reasonable expectations on the value of one’s practice. Upon successful completion of this lecture, attendees will learn how to make the right plan for retirement.

*This presentation will not provide continuing education credit toward New York State dental relicensure but will provide AGD credits.

CORRESPONDENCE:
President-Elect Dr. Philip Buccigrossi – New York University, 2010
President Dr. Lauro Medrano-Saldaña
• Attended reception for new dentists and it was quite enjoyable
• Gave a detailed report on his experience with the mentorship program financial report
• Explained the role of a mentor to the Board and that more non-Board members should be mentors
• Dr. Ariosa stated that the Membership Committee will play an integral part in the mentorship program and will meet with Dr. Scozno to help finalize the details

COMMITTEE REPORTS:
• Thanked the Publications Committee for their assistance
• Requested that Dr. Buccigrossi select a district reporter for the NYSDI
• Informed the Board of their findings or the cleanliness of the reports
• Informed the Board that there are two main parts of an audit report. The first is called their findings or the cleanliness of the report. They were well prepared and had to siphon through a tremendous amount of information
• Presented the Board with the two parts of the audit report. The first is the actual financial audit, the financial reports of the GNYDM. The second part of the audit deals with the actual findings that are broken down to two aspects. One being management issues and the other being the actual financial report. Dr. Ratner discussed the four major concerns brought up in the management section of the audit report. The independent auditor identified four major concerns that are the subject of the resolution that is mentioned at the end of the Audit Committee report and will require immediate action by the Board. Dr. Ratner explained each of these issues

At this time a request was made by Edwab to table the vote on the resolution from the Audit Committee that was deferred until after Dr. Edwab’s presentation.

Motion Passed: To table the vote of the proposed resolution by the Audit Committee until after Dr. Edwab’s presentation
